Enquiries show that house 1, passage 135 Avenue Haig has since 1-12-35 been rented by Mrs A.I. WITKOVSKY, 34, Russian, who is reported to be a widow. At present Mrs WITKOVSKY and her two children aged 11 and 10 years, respectively, occupy two rooms in the house the remaining four being occupied by the following tenants: a Russian musician and his common-law wife; a Russian woman reported to be a trained nurse by occupation; a Russian woman reported to be "kept" by a member of the U.S. Navy; a certain Miss E.N. GREBENNIKOFF.

According to her own statement when registering with the French Police on 24-2-38, Miss Evdokia Nikolaevna GREBENNIKOFF, Russian, was born on 14-3-1912 at Saratov, Russia, and has been residing in Shanghai for about 6 years. In the French Police registration form she gave her occupation as "home work" and in the house register filled in a few days ago described herself as a "typist". It appears that she is without any fixed employment. Discreet enquiries in the neighbourhood reveal that she is known to other people as the "fiancee of a British member of the Shanghai Municipal Police".

Miss GREBENNIKOFF is reported to have been residing at the above address since 26-4-37, her previous address being 159 Avenue Haig, House 8. She is not registered with the Russian Emigrants Committee, 118/1 Moulmein Road, nor with the Council of United Russian Organization (SORO), 8 Avenue Dubail.

While in Shanghai she did not come to the no-
